

NUISANCE

Stupid fucker!
You had to come to talk about what you don't know,
Like anybody cares about your
Poisonous tongue, full of cynicism,
With nothing good to say at all

Why don't you strive to find a way to be a little nicer
Instead of pissing on my gate?
That will only make you a nuisance
Is that what you want?

Why don't you go
And try to make something good by yourself?
I guess you just can't even dream of Creating things that ain't frivolity,
Or silly manners to annoy

Why don't you strive to find a way to be a little wiser
Instead of pissing on my gate?
That will only make you a nuisance
Is that what you want?

I don't hope so, lad
That would be so sad
All that you have found
Just to be a clown?

Only a nuisance
