

SUDDENLY

---

(SEED)

They will tell you that
It's just to do what you can't by yourself
Holy duty, you should even feel sorry for them

It all happens so suddenly, yeah
Someday you
wake up and there's nothing you can do
Without some jerk stating
What you should kill and die for,
Who you should be hating, to be the way they want It's so easy to Let the awful fear rule over you
You just have to keep on doing what they tell you to do

It all happens so suddenly, yeah
Someday you
wake up and there's nothing you can do
Without some jerk stating
What you should kill and die for
Who you should be hating, to be the way they want

It all happens so suddenly, yeah
Some day you wake up and there's nothing
You can do
Without some jerk
Telling you
The way to love, and die, and kill, and hate, and think, and fuck, and cry, and breathe, and play...
